(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1), the general functions of the Board of Experts shall be to determine as to whether—

(a) any flavouring extract, essence or syrup containing alcohol is an article fit for use as intoxicating liquor, or

(b) any communication amounts to an advertisement for soliciting use of liquor or whether it is informative or educative communication for responsible drinking, or

(c) whether any denaturant can be used as effective denaturant and whether it suits or harms manufacture of any chemicals, or

(d) any other matter as may be referred to it by the Administrator.

CHAPTER III

LICENCE AND PERMIT FOR MANUFACTURE, POSSESSION, SALE, ETC., OF LIQUOR

12. (1) No person shall construct or establish any manufactory or warehouse or manufacture, bottle, possess, sell, collect, transport, transit, import, export or purchase any liquor or use, keep or have in his possession any still, utensil, implement, apparatus, label, cork, capsule or seal for manufacture of any liquor except under the authority and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a letter of intent, licence or permit granted under this Regulation or the rules made thereunder:

Prohibition of manufacture, sale, import, export, etc., of liquor.

Provided that possession of labels, corks or capsules by its printer or manufacturer, as the case may be, will not amount to illegal possession constituting an offence if the label, cork or capsule is printed or manufactured under the authority from the holder of the licence to manufacture liquor under this Regulation.

(2) No person shall engage in manufacture of alcohol exclusively for industrial use unless he is registered with the Excise Commissioner in such manner as may be prescribed.

13. Every letter of intent, licence or permit under this Regulation shall be granted on payment of such fees, for such period, and subject to such terms and conditions and in such form and shall contain such particulars, as may be prescribed.

Grant of letter of intent, licence or permit.

14. (1) While considering an application for grant of a licence or permit, the authorised officer shall ensure that the applicant—

Qualification for grant of licence or permit.

(ii) that the premises have not been constructed in violation of any law;

(iii) that he possesses a good moral character and has no criminal background nor has been convicted of any offence punishable under this Regulation or any other law for the time being in force;

(iv) that he shall not employ any salesman or worker or representative who has criminal background or suffers from any infectious or contagious diseases or is below eighteen years of age;

(v) that he does not owe any public dues or dues to the Administration;

(vi) that he is solvent and has the necessary funds or has made arrangements for the necessary funds, for conducting the business:

Provided that the details of such funds shall be made available to the authorised officer if so required.

(2) The licence or permit shall be liable for cancellation if any statement made in the affidavit or any document produced with the application is found to be false or forged.

15. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the authority granting a licence under this Regulation may require the licensee to—

(a) give security for the observance of the terms of his licence; and

Power to take security and counter-part agreement.

(b) execute a counterpart agreement in conformity with the tenor of his licence.

Technical defects in licence and permit.

16. (1) No licence or permit granted under this Regulation shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any technical defect, irregularity or omission in the licence or permit, or in any proceeding conducted prior to grant thereof.

(2) The decision of the licensing authority, as to what is a technical defect, irregularity or omission shall be final and binding.

Power to withdraw licence and permit.

17. (1) Whenever the authority which granted a licence or permit under this Regulation considers that such licence or permit should be withdrawn for any reason, it may do so, on expiry of a period of twenty-one days notice of its intention to do so forthwith, assigning reasons therefor in writing.

(2) If any licence or permit is withdrawn, the licensee or the permit holder shall be paid such sum, by way of compensation as the authority who granted licence or permit, may direct and refund any fee paid in advance or deposit made by the licensee in respect thereof after deducting the amount recoverable by the Government.

Power to suspend or cancel licence and permit.

18. (1) Subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed, the authority who granted licence or permit under this Regulation may, after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard, suspend or cancel the licence or permit, in the following circumstances, namely:—

(a) if the licence or permit is transferred or sublet by the holder thereof without the permission of the said authority;

(b) if any excise revenue payable by the holder thereof is not duly paid;

(c) in the event of any breach of the terms and conditions of such licence or permit by the holder or by his employee, or agent;

(d) if the holder of the licence or permit or the agent or employee of such holder is convicted of an offence punishable under this Regulation or under any other law for the time being in force, relevant to and connected with excise matters or relating to excise revenue or of any cognizable and non-bailable offence;

(e) if the purpose for which the licence or permit was granted ceases to exist;

(f) if the licence or permit has been obtained through misrepresentation or fraud.

(2) When a licence or permit held by such person is cancelled under sub-section (1), the aforesaid authority may cancel any other licence or permit granted to such person under this Regulation or under any other law relating to excise revenue.

(3) In the case of cancellation or suspension of licence or permit under sub-section (1), the fee payable for the balance of the period for which any licence or permit shall have been current but for such cancellation or suspension, may be recovered from the ex-licensee as excise revenue.

(4) The holder of a licence or permit shall not be entitled to any compensation for the cancellation or suspension thereof nor shall be entitled to refund of any fee paid or deposit made if any, in respect thereof.

Bar to the right of renewal and to compensation.

19. No person to whom a licence or permit has been granted, shall be entitled to claim any renewal thereof, and no claim shall lie for damages or otherwise in consequence of any refusal to renew a licence or permit on the expiry of the period for which the same remains in force.

Surrender of licence or permit.

20. No holder of a licence or permit granted under this Regulation shall surrender his licence or permit except on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given by him to the Deputy Commissioner of his intention to surrender the same on payment of the fee payable for the licence for the whole period for which it shall have been current but for the surrender:

Provided that if the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for surrendering the licence or permit, he may remit to the holder thereof the sum so payable on surrender or any portion thereof.

21. The licence or permit granted under this Regulation shall not be transferable except with the prior approval of the Excise Commissioner or any officer authorised by him in this behalf, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Transfer of licence or permit.

22. Subject to the provisions of this Regulation and subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, the Excise Commissioner may grant to any person a licence or lease or both, either jointly or severally, for the exclusive privilege or manufacturing, or of supplying by wholesale or sale by retail, or both, any liquor within any local area.

Grant of exclusive privilege of manufacture, etc., of any liquor.

23. No liquor shall be removed from any manufactory, warehouse or other place of storage established under this Regulation unless duty and fee payable has been paid or a bond as may be prescribed, has been executed for the payment thereof.

Removal of liquor from manufactory, warehouse,
etc., on payment of duty.

24. No person or licensed vendor or his employee or agent shall sell or deliver any liquor to any person under the age of eighteen years whether for consumption by self or others.

Prohibition of sale to certain persons.

25. No licensee shall employ or permit to be employed in his premises any person under the age of eighteen years or suffering from contagious disease.

Prohibition of employment of
person.

26. The District Magistrate or any other officer authorised by him may, by a notice in writing to the licensee, require that any shop in which any liquor is sold shall be closed at such times or for such period as he may think necessary, for preservation of public peace:

Closure of shops for preservation of public peace.

Provided that the closure days in the licensing year shall not exceed seven days in all or more than three days continuously at any one time:

Provided further that if the Excise Commissioner or an officer authorised by him in this behalf is of the opinion that any particular shop or all shops in any particular area shall be closed for a period exceeding seven days in a licensing year, or more than three days continuously at any one time, he may with prior sanction of the Administrator, permit to do so.

CHAPTER IV

EXCISE REVENUE

27. The excise revenue shall be levied and recovered under the following heads, namely:—

Nature and components of excise revenue.

- (a) duty;
- (b) licence fee;
- (c) label registration fee; and
- (d) import or export fee.

28. (1) There shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by this Regulation and the rules thereunder and at such rates, not exceeding the rates set forth in the Schedule, as the Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, a duty of excise or a countervailing duty or a special duty, as the case may be, on all liquor of the descriptions specified in the Schedule, being liquor manufactured or produced in, or brought into, the territory and such duty shall be payable by the person manufacturing or producing or importing such liquor:

Excise duty.

Provided that no such duty shall be levied on toddy when used for the manufacture of jaggery, vinegar, yeast, neera or when drunk as such.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that in any notification issued under this section, it shall not be necessary to specify separately the rate of countervailing duty or special duty and, unless otherwise provided in such notification expressly, any rate specified in such notification as the rate of excise duty in respect of any description of liquor shall be deemed to be also the rate of countervailing duty or a special duty, as the case may be, in respect of such description of liquor.

(2) There shall be levied and collected fee for issue of licence or permit subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) There shall be levied and collected the import, export or transport duties assessed in such manner as may be prescribed.

Recovery of duty and levies on the property of defaulter.

29. (1) All duties, fees, taxes, fines payable to the Union territory Administration under this Regulation may be recovered from the persons liable to pay the same or from his surety or his agent as if they were arrears of land revenue.

(2) In the event of default by any person to whom a license has been granted under this Regulation, his manufactory, warehouse, shop or premises and all fittings, apparatus, stocks of liquor or materials for the manufacture of the same, held therein shall be liable to be attached towards any claim for excise revenue or in respect of any loss incurred by the Union territory Administration through such default and be sold to satisfy such claim which shall be a first charge upon the proceeds of such sale.

(3) Where the duty due is not levied or not paid or short levied or short paid or erroneously refunded,—

(a) the District Excise Officer may, within three years from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with the duty of excise which has not been levied or paid or which has been short-levied or short-paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this clause, where the service of the notice is stayed by an order of the court, the period of such stay shall be excluded in computing the aforesaid period of three years.

Explanation 2.—For the purposes of this clause, “relevant date” means,—

(i) in cases in which duty of excise has not been paid or has been short-levied or short-paid, the date on which the duty is to be paid under this Regulation or the rules made thereunder;

(ii) in a case where duty of excise is provisionally assessed under this Regulation or the rules made thereunder, the date of adjustment of duty after the final assessment thereof;

(iii) in a case where duty of excise has been erroneously refunded, the date of such refund;

(b) the District Excise Officer shall, after considering the representation, if any, made by the person on whom notice is served under sub-section (1), determine the amount of duty of excise due from such person (not being in excess of the amount specified in the notice) and thereupon such person shall pay the amount so determined.

Interest payable for failure to pay excise
revenue.

30. If the duty of excise payable by a person under this Regulation or the rules made thereunder is not paid within time, he shall be liable to pay on the sum due, a simple interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the day next following the day on which such payment became due.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, where the duty determined to be payable is reduced or increased by the Appellate Authority or the court, the interest shall be payable on such reduced or increased amount of duty, as the case may be.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, the Excise Commissioner may, on an application made in this behalf by a person, with the approval of the Administrator and after recording his reason for so doing, reduce or waive the amount of any interest payable by him under this Regulation, if he is satisfied that —

Power to reduce or waive interest in certain cases.

(a) to do otherwise would cause genuine hardship to the person having regard to the circumstances of the case; and

(b) the person has cooperated in any proceeding for the recovery of any amount due from him.

32. Notwithstanding that a writ petition has been preferred or a suit or other proceeding has been instituted in any court, or any appeal has been filed before any Tribunal or before the Excise Commissioner, or a revision has been filed before the Administrator, any sum due to the Union territory Administration under this Regulation as a result of demand or order made or passed by any officer or authority empowered in this behalf by or under this Regulation, shall be payable in accordance with such demand or order unless and until such payment has been stayed by the competent authority.

Excise revenue to be paid irrespective of pendency of any writ petition, suit, etc.

33. Every licensee shall maintain such accounts and submit to the concerned officers such returns in such forms, containing such particulars relating to stock, apparatus, excise duty or fee payable or paid, and such other information at such interval as may be prescribed.

Accounts and returns.

CHAPTER V

(2) If any offence punishable under sub-section (1) is committed by a person not holding valid licence or permit under this Regulation, he shall be liable to twice the penalty prescribed for the said offence.

Penalty for rendering denatured spirit fit for human consumption.

35. Whoever renders or attempts to render fit for human consumption any spirit which has been denatured, or has in his possession any spirit in respect of which he knows or has reason to believe that any such attempt has been made, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than two years, but which may extend to three years, and also with fine, which may extend to two lakh rupees or five times of the value of liquor, whichever is higher.

Penalty for mixing noxious substance with liquor.

36. Whoever mixes or permits to be mixed with any liquor sold or manufactured or possessed by him any noxious drug or any foreign ingredient likely to cause disability or grievous hurt or death to human being, shall be punishable,—

(a) if as a result of such an act, death is caused to any person, with death or imprisonment for life and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to ten lakh rupees;

(b) if as a result of such an act, disability or grievous hurt is caused to any person, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six years but which may extend to imprisonment for life, and also with fine which may extend to five lakh rupees;

(c) if as a result of such an act, any other consequential injury is caused to any person, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to two lakh fifty thousand rupees;

(d) if as a result of such an act, no injury is caused to any person, with imprisonment which may extend to six months and with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees or five times the value of liquor, whichever is higher.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression “grievous hurt” shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 320 of the Indian Penal Code.

45 of 1860.

Order to pay compensation.

37. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the court, when passing an order under this Regulation may, if it is satisfied that death or injury has been caused to any person due to consumption of liquor sold in any place, order the manufacturer or seller, whether or not he is convicted of an offence, to pay, by way of compensation, an amount not less than three lakh rupees to the legal representatives of each deceased or two lakh rupees to the person to whom grievous injury has been caused, or rupees twenty thousand to the person for any other consequential injury:

2 of 1974.

Provided that where the liquor is sold in a licensed shop, the liability to pay the compensation under this section shall be on the licensee.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (1) may, within a period of thirty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the High Court:

Provided that no appeal shall be filed by the accused unless the amount ordered to be paid under sub-section (1) is deposited by him in the Court:

Provided further that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal in time.

38. Whoever sells or keeps or exposes for sale as foreign liquor which he knows or has reason to believe to be Indian liquor, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to one lakh rupees, or five times the value of liquor, whichever is higher.

Penalty for selling Indian liquor as foreign liquor.

39. Whoever has in his possession any liquor knowing the same to have been unlawfully imported, transported or manufactured or knowingly avoids payment of prescribed duty shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees, or five times the value of liquor, whichever is higher.

Penalty for possession of liquor unlawfully imported or non-payment of duty, etc.

40. (1) If a chemist, druggist, apothecary or keeper of a dispensary, allows any liquor which has not been *bona fide*ly medicated for medicinal purposes to be consumed on his business premises by any person, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

Penalty for consumption of liquor in chemist's shop.

(2) If a person consumes any such liquor on such premises, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

41. Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of this Regulation or of any rule, notification or order made thereunder,—

Penalty for consumption of liquor in public places.

(a) consumes liquor in a public place;

(b) consumes liquor in public place and creates nuisance; or

(c) permits drunkenness or allows assembly of antisocial elements on the premises of liquor establishments,

(i) in case of an offence falling under clause (a), with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees;

(ii) in case of an offence falling under clause (b), with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees;

(iii) in case of an offence falling under clause (c), with imprisonment for a term which may extend six months and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees.

42. Whoever prints, publishes or gives an advertisement in any media soliciting use of any liquor, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to ten lakh rupees, or with both:

Penalty for unlawful advertisement.

Provided that this section shall not apply to catalogue or price list or advertisement generally or specially approved by the Excise Officer for the purposes of display at the points of sale for consumer information and education.

43. Any person who unlawfully releases or abets escape of any person arrested under this Regulation, or abets commission of any offence against this Regulation, or engages himself in a criminal conspiracy for contravention of the provisions of this Regulation shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall be liable to fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees.

Penalty for abetment and conspiracy.

44. If any licence holder or any person acting in his behalf, sells or delivers any liquor to any person apparently under the age of eighteen years or employs any person under the age of eighteen years, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months and with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both.

Penalty for employing minors or selling liquor to minors.

Penalty for assault and obstruction.

45. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Penal Code, any person who assaults or threatens to assault or obstructs or attempts to obstruct any Excise Officer in the discharge of his official duties shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and also with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees.

45 of 1860.

Liability of employer for offence committed by the employee or agent.

46. The holder of a licence or permit granted or issued under this Regulation, as well as the actual offender, shall be liable for any offence committed by his employee or his agent unless he proves that due and reasonable precautions were exercised by him to prevent commission of such offence.

Penalty for manufacture, sale or possession by one person on account of another.

47. (1) Where any liquor has been manufactured or sold or is possessed by any person on account of any other person and such other person knows or has reason to believe that such manufacture or sale was or that such possession is, on his account, such liquor shall, for the purposes of this Regulation, be deemed to have been manufactured, sold or to be in the possession of such other person.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall absolve any person who manufactures, sells or has possession of any liquor on account of another person, from liability to any punishment under this Regulation for unlawful manufacture, sale or possession of such liquor.

Penalty for misconduct of licensee, etc.

48. Whoever, being the holder of a licence or permit granted or issued under this Regulation or being in the employment of such holder and acting on his behalf,—

(a) fails to produce such licence or permit on demand by any Excise Officer or any other officer duly empowered to make such demand; or

(b) wilfully does or omits to do anything in breach of any of the conditions of his licence or permit otherwise than provided in this Regulation; or

(c) fails to submit returns; or

(d) fails to print the maximum retail price on the label or tampers with it, shall be punishable,—

(i) in the case of an offence falling under clause (a), with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees;

(ii) in the case of an offence falling under clause (b) or clause (d), with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to one lakh rupees;

(iii) in the case of an offence falling under clause (c), with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees, and ten thousand rupees per day for any subsequent delay.

Penalty for non-payment of excise duty or fee.

49. (1) If any person fails to pay any duty or fee under this Regulation, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and also with fine which may extend to one lakh rupees.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1), that person shall also be liable for interest on delayed payment and damages at such rates as may be imposed.

Penalty for false statement made in declaration or affidavit or periodic returns.

50. Whosoever, in any declaration or affidavit or periodic return made to an Excise Officer makes any statement which is false or found to be false after due verification or which he believes to be false or does not believe it to be true, touching any point material to the object for which the statement is made or used, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees.

Penalty for allowing premises, etc., to be used for commission of an offence.

51. Whoever, being a licensee under this Regulation and having the control or use of any house, room, enclosure, space, animal or conveyance, knowingly permits it to be used for commission by any other person of an offence punishable under any provision of this Regulation, shall be punishable in the same manner as if he had himself committed the said offence.

52. Whoever, attempts to commit any offence punishable under this Regulation, shall be liable for half the punishment provided for the offence under this Regulation.

Penalty for attempt to commit an offence under this Regulation.

53. Any Excise Officer or other person who vexatiously and without reasonable ground for suspicion —

Penalty for making vexatious search, seizure, detention or arrest.

(a) enters or searches or causes to be entered or searched any closed place under the colour of exercising any power conferred by this Regulation; or

(b) seizes the moveable property of any person on the pretext of seizing or searching for any article liable to confiscation under this Regulation; or

(c) searches, detains or arrests any person; or

(d) in any other way exceeds his lawful powers under this Regulation, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

54. Any Excise Officer who, without lawful excuse refuses to perform, or withdraws himself from the duties of his office, unless expressly allowed to do so in writing by the Excise Commissioner, or unless he has given to his superior officer two months notice in writing of his intention to do so, or who shall be guilty of cowardice, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

Penalty for refusing to perform or withdraw from duty.

55. Whoever, does any act in contravention of any of the provisions of this Regulation, or any rule or order made thereunder and punishment for which has not been otherwise provided for such contravention, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and shall also be liable to fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or five times the value of the liquor, whichever is higher.

Penalty for offences not otherwise provided for.

56. (1) In prosecution under section 34, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the accused person has committed the offence punishable under that section in respect of any liquor, still, utensil, implement or apparatus, for the possession of which he is unable to account satisfactorily.

Presumption as to commission of offence in certain cases.

(2) Where any animal, vessel, cart or other vehicle is used in the commission of any offence under this Regulation, and is liable to confiscation, the owner thereof shall be deemed to be guilty of such offence and such owner shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly unless he satisfies the court that he had exercised due care in the prevention of the commission of such an offence.

57. If any person, after having been previously convicted of an offence punishable under this Regulation, subsequently commits and is convicted, of an offence under this Regulation, he shall be liable to twice the punishment provided for the first conviction subject to the maximum punishment provided for the same offence and with fine twice the amount provided under the first conviction or with both.

Enhanced punishment after previous conviction.

58. Where at any time during the trial of any offence under this Regulation alleged to have been committed by any person, not being the manufacturer, distributor or dealer of any liquor, the court is satisfied, on the evidence adduced before it, that such manufacturer, distributor or dealer is also concerned with that offence, then, the court may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 319 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 proceed against him under any section of this Chapter.

Power of court to implead manufacturer, etc.

59. (1) If the person committing an offence under this Regulation is a company, the company as well as every person who at the time the offence is committed was in charge of, and responsible to, the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Commission of offence by companies.

Provided that where a company has different establishments or branch, the concerned Chief Executive and the person in-charge of such establishment, branch or unit nominated by the company as responsible for the conduct of business shall be liable for contravention in respect of such establishment, branch or unit:

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Regulation has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary, or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Procedure for launching prosecution in the case of major offences.

60. (1) The authorised Excise Officer shall after investigation of any offence committed under this Regulation, send his report to the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner after scrutiny of the investigation report shall decide as to whether alleged offence is major or minor and in the case of major offences, he shall decide within such period as may be prescribed, as per the gravity of offence, whether the matter be referred to —

(a) a court of ordinary jurisdiction in case of offences punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years; or

(b) a special court in case of offences punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding three years where such special court is established, and in case no special court is established, such cases shall be tried by a court of ordinary jurisdiction.

(3) The Deputy Commissioner shall communicate his decision to concerned Excise Officer, who shall launch prosecution before courts of ordinary jurisdiction or special court, as the case may be.

Procedure for adjudication in case of minor offences.

61. (1) All minor offences shall be adjudicated by an Adjudicating Officer under this Regulation.

(2) The Administrator shall, by notification, appoint an officer not below the rank of an Additional District Magistrate of the district where the alleged offence is committed, to be the Adjudicating Officer for adjudication in the manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Adjudicating Officer shall, after giving the person a reasonable opportunity for making representation in the matter, and if, on such inquiry, he is satisfied that the person has contravened the provisions of this Regulation or the rules made thereunder, impose such penalty as he thinks fit in accordance with the provisions relating to that offence.

(4) The Adjudicating Officer shall have the powers of a civil court and —

(a) all proceedings before him shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code;

45 of 1860.

(b) shall be deemed to be a court for the purposes of sections 345 and 346 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

2 of 1974.

(5) While adjudicating the quantum of penalty under this Chapter, the Adjudicating Officer shall have due regard to the guidelines specified in section 63.

2 of 1974.

62. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the offences punishable under section 40, clause (a) of section 41, clauses (a) and (c) of section 48 and section 53 may either before or after the institution of any proceeding, be compoundable under this Regulation.

Compounding of certain offences.

(2) Any person who is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence specified under sub-section (1) may apply to the District Excise Officer for compounding of the offence.

(3) On receipt of an application, under sub-section (2), the District Excise Officer, having regard to the circumstances of the case, may at his discretion order for compounding of the offence on payment of such sum of money by way of compounding fee or compensation for the offence, in accordance with the guidelines as may be prescribed.

(4) On payment by the person such sum of money, no proceeding shall be instituted or continued against such person in any criminal court:

Provided that the sum of money fixed as compounding fee or compensation by the District Excise Officer under this section shall not be less than five times but not more than ten times the duty involved or the value of liquor, apparatus, vehicle and other material, whichever is higher:

Provided further that where liquor, apparatus, vehicle or other material is seized, the same shall not be released but shall be disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) Where the composition of any offence is made after the institution of any prosecution, such composition shall be brought by the District Excise Officer in writing, to the notice of the Court in which the prosecution is pending and on such notice of the composition of the offence being given, the person in relation to whom the offence is so compounded shall be discharged.

63. While adjudging the quantum of penalty under this Chapter, Court or the Adjudicating Officer, as the case may be, shall have due regard to the following, namely:—

provisions relating to determination of penalty.

(a) the amount of gain or unfair, advantage, wherever quantifiable, made as a result of the contravention;

(b) the amount of loss caused or likely to cause to the Union territory Administration or any person as a result of the contravention;

(c) the repetitive nature of the contravention;

(d) whether the contravention is without his knowledge; and

(e) any other relevant factor.

64. Whenever an offence has been committed, which is punishable under this Regulation, following things shall be liable to confiscation, namely:—

Certain
things liable to confiscation.

(a) any liquor, material, still, utensil, implement apparatus in respect of or by means of which such offence has been committed;

(b) any liquor unlawfully imported, transported, manufactured, sold or brought along with, or in addition to any liquor, liable to confiscation under clause (a);

(c) any receptacle, package, or covering in which anything liable to confiscation under clause (a) or clause (b) is found, and the other contents, if any, of such receptacle package or covering; and

(d) any animal, vehicle, vessel, or other conveyance used for carrying liquor.

65. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation or any other law for the time being in force, where anything liable for confiscation under section 64 is seized or detained under the provisions of this Regulation, the officer seizing and detaining such property shall, without any unreasonable delay, produce the said seized property before the Deputy Commissioner.

Confiscation
by Deputy Commissioner in certain cases.

(2) On production of the said seized property under sub-section (1), the Deputy Commissioner if satisfied that an offence has been committed under this Regulation, he may, whether or not a prosecution is instituted for the commission of such offence, order for confiscation of such property, or otherwise he may order for its return to the rightful owner.

(3) While making an order of confiscation under sub-section (2), the Deputy Commissioner may also order that such of the properties to which the order of confiscation relates, which, in his opinion, cannot be preserved or are not fit for human consumption, be destroyed.

(4) Whenever any confiscated article has to be destroyed under this section, it shall be destroyed in the presence of the Excise Officer ordering the confiscation or forfeiture, as the case may be, or in the presence of an Excise Officer not below the rank of an Inspector.

(5) Where the Deputy Commissioner, after passing an order of confiscation under sub-section (2), is of the opinion that it is expedient in the public interest so to do, he may order the confiscated property or any part thereof to be sold by public auction or dispose it of otherwise.

(6) The Deputy Commissioner shall submit a report of all particulars of confiscation to the Excise Commissioner within one month of such confiscation.

(7) Any liquor, mahua flowers or molasses and any other property if confiscated in a case compounded under section 62 or in respect of which an offence has been committed and the offender is not known or cannot be found, shall be disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed.

Order of confiscation
and destruction not to interfere with other punishment.

66. (1) The order of any confiscation under section 65 shall not prevent imposition of any other punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under this Regulation.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the non-production of confiscated property before the trial court due to disposal of such property, shall not affect the conviction for an offence under this Regulation:

Provided that the samples of liquor and the photographs of the confiscated property may be preserved to meet the evidentiary requirements.

Confiscated articles to vest in the Administrator.

67. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, when any article, animal or thing is duly confiscated either by order of court or otherwise, such article, animal or thing shall be made over to the Deputy Commissioner for disposal in such manner and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

(2) When an order for confiscation of any property has been passed under section 65 and such order has become final in respect of the whole or any portion of such property, such property or portion thereof, as the case may be, shall vest in Administrator free from all encumbrances.

CHAPTER VI

DETECTION, INVESTIGATION AND TRIAL OF OFFENCES

Power to obtain information.

68. The Excise Commissioner or any authorised Excise Officer may by order, require any person or any establishment deemed reasonably connected with any unlawful handling of any liquor to furnish to him such information as may be specified in that order.

Landholders, officers and others to give information.

69. (1) Whenever any liquor is manufactured, exported, imported or transported, collected, possessed or sold, in contravention of any provisions of this Regulation, the owner or occupier of the land or building or his agent, and every officer of police and land revenue department, local bodies and block development office shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, be bound to give notice of the fact to a Magistrate or to an officer of the Excise Department as soon as the fact comes to their knowledge.

(2) Every Excise Officer shall be bound to give immediate information to his immediate superior, of all breaches of any of the provisions of this Regulation, which may come to his knowledge under sub-section (1) or otherwise.

70. (1) Any authorised Excise Officer may search any place, seize any article, arrest or detain any person if there is a reasonable doubt that such place, article or person is involved in commission of any offence under this Regulation:

Power of arrest, search and seizure.

Provided that no search shall be deemed to be irregular by reason only of the fact that witness for the search is not inhabitant of the locality in which the place searched is situated.

2 of 1974.

(2) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Regulation, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 relating to search, seizure, arrest, detention, summons and investigation shall apply, as far as may be, to all action taken under this Regulation.

71. Every officer-in-charge of a police station shall take charge of and keep in safe custody, pending the orders of a Magistrate or of the Deputy Commissioner, all articles seized under this Regulation which may be delivered to him and shall allow any officer of the Excise Department who may accompany such articles, to affix his seal to such articles and to take samples of and from them and all samples so taken shall also be sealed with the seal of the officer-in-charge of the police station.

Duty of police to accept seized articles.

2 of 1974.

72. All major offences under this Regulation shall be cognizable and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, shall apply to them.

Offences under this Regulation to be cognizable.

2 of 1974.

73. All offences punishable under this Regulation with imprisonment of two years and more, shall be non-bailable and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, with respect to non-bailable offences, shall apply to those offences.

Certain offences to be non-bailable.

2 of 1974.

74. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the Magistrate shall have power to try summarily in accordance with the provisions contained in sections 262 to 265 of that Code, all or any of the offences which are punishable under this Regulation with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or with fine, or with both.

Power of court to try cases summarily.

75. (1) Whenever any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this Regulation and the court convicting him is of opinion that such person habitually commits or attempts to commit, or abets the commission of any such offence and that it is necessary to require such person to execute a bond for abstaining from the commission of any such offence, the court may, at the time of passing sentence on such person, order him to execute a bond for a sum proportionate to his means, with or without sureties, for abstaining from the commission of such offence during such period, not exceeding three years, as it thinks fit to fix.

Security for good conduct and abstaining from committing offence.

2 of 1974.

(2) The bond shall be in the prescribed form in terms of the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and shall in so far as they are applicable, apply to all matters connected with such bond as if it were a bond to keep the peace ordered to be executed under section 106 of that Code.

(3) If the conviction is set aside on appeal or otherwise, the bond so executed shall become void.

(4) An order under this section may also be made by an Appellate Court or by the High Court when exercising its power of revision.

CHAPTER VII

APPEAL AND REVISION

76. (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Regulation by an Excise Officer subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner may appeal to the Deputy Commissioner.

Appeals to Appellate Authority.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the Deputy Commissioner may appeal to the Excise Commissioner.

(3) An appeal under this section shall be filed within thirty days from the date of communication of such decision or order together with self attested copy thereof:

Provided that a further period of thirty days may be allowed if the appellant establishes that sufficient cause prevented him from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of thirty days.

Procedure in appeal.

77. (1) At the hearing of an appeal, an appellant may be allowed to go into any ground not specified in the grounds of appeal or take additional evidence if necessary, if it is established that such omission was not wilful or unreasonable.

(2) The Appellate authority may after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order, as he thinks fit, just and proper, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order, as the case may be.

(3) The appeal shall be heard and decided within a period of six months from the date on which such appeal is filed:

Provided that if an appeal is not decided within the period specified, the relief prayed for in the appeal shall be deemed to have been granted.

Order of the Appellate Authority.

78. (1) The order of the Appellate Authority disposing of the appeal shall be in writing and shall state the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for the decision.

(2) The Appellate Authority shall communicate the order passed by him to the appellant and the Excise Officer whose order formed the subject matter of appeal.

Power of Excise
Commissioner to rectify mistakes apparent from the record.

79. The Excise Commissioner may, at any time within six months from the date of the order with a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record, amend any order passed by him and shall make such amendments if the mistake is brought to his notice by any of the parties to the appeal:

Provided that an amendment which has the effect of enhancing an assessment or reducing a refund or otherwise increasing the liability of the other party, shall not be made under this section unless the Excise Commissioner has given notice to the appellant of his intention to do so and has granted him an opportunity of being heard.

Revision of orders by
Commissioner.

80. (1) The Excise Commissioner may, on his own motion, call for the record of any proceeding in which an officer subordinate to him has taken any decision or passed an order under this Regulation, including those related to the grant, issue or refusal to grant a licence, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may make such inquiry or cause such inquiry to be made and, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, pass such order thereon as he thinks fit.

(2) No order, which is prejudicial to any person shall be passed under this section unless the person has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The Excise Commissioner shall communicate the order passed by him under subsection (1) to such person and the Excise Officer whose order formed the subject matter of revision.

(4) No order under this section shall be passed by the Excise Commissioner in respect of any issue if an appeal against such issue is pending before the Deputy Commissioner.

(5) No order under this section shall be passed after the expiry of a period of six months from the date on which the order sought to be revised has been passed.

Deposit of duty or fee demanded or penalty or fine levied, pending
appeal.

81. (1) Where in any appeal under this Chapter, the decision or order appealed against relates to any duty or fee demanded or any penalty or fine levied under this Regulation, the person desirous of appealing against such decision or order shall, pending the appeal, deposit with the Excise Officer the duty or fee is demanded or the penalty or fine levied, if such amount exceeds one lakh rupees.

(2) Where in any particular case, the Appellate Authority is of opinion that the appellant has a prima facie case in his favour and deposit of duty demanded or penalty levied would cause undue hardship to such person, the Appellate Authority may dispense with such deposit and stay its recovery subject to such conditions as he may deem fit to impose so as to safeguard the interest of revenue.

(3) Where an application is filed for dispensing with the deposit of duty or fee demanded or penalty or fine levied under sub-section (2), the Appellate Authority shall, where it is possible to do so, decide such application within thirty days from the date of its filing.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no recovery action shall be initiated against the appellant until the application under sub-section (3) has been decided by the Appellate Authority.

82. (1) Any company referred to in sub-section (1) of section 7 and aggrieved by the order of the Administrator may file an appeal to the High Court.

Appeal to High Court.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from an order passed in appeal by the Excise Commissioner if the High Court is satisfied that the case involves a substantial question of law.

(3) The Union territory Administration or the other party aggrieved by any order passed by the Excise Commissioner may file an appeal to the High Court and such appeal under this sub-section shall be—

(a) filed within sixty days from the date on which the order appealed against is received by the Union territory Administration or the other party;

(b) accompanied by a fee of ten per cent. of the amount involved or two thousand rupees, whichever is higher, where such appeal is filed by the other party;

(c) in the form of a memorandum of appeal precisely stating therein the substantial question of law involved.

(4) Where the High Court is satisfied that a substantial question of law is involved in any case, it shall formulate that question.

(5) The appeal shall be heard only on the question so formulated, and the respondent shall, at the hearing of the appeal, be allowed to argue that the case does not involve such question:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to take away or abridge the power of Court to hear, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the appeal on any other substantial question of law not formulated by it, if it is satisfied that the case involves such question of law.

(6) The High Court shall decide the question of law so formulated and deliver such judgment thereon containing the grounds on which decision is founded and may award such cost as it deems fit.

(7) The High Court may determine any issue which—

(a) has not been determined by the Excise Commissioner;

(b) has been wrongly determined by the Excise Commissioner, by reason of a decision of such question of law as is referred to in sub-section (1).

(8) An Appeal shall be heard by a bench of not less than two judges of the High Court, and shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of such judges or of the majority, if any, of such judges.

(9) Where there is no such majority, the judges shall state the point of law upon which they differ and the case shall, then, be heard upon that point only by one or more of the other judges of High Court and such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the judges who have heard the cases including those who first heard it.

(10) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, relating to the appeals to the High Court shall as far as may be, apply in cases of appeal under this section. 5 of 1908.

Sums due to be paid notwithstanding appeal before the High Court or revision before the Excise Commissioner.

83. Notwithstanding that an appeal had been preferred to the High Court, sums due to the Union territory Administration as a result of an order passed by the Excise Commissioner shall be payable in accordance with the order so passed:

Provided that nothing contained in this section or Chapter shall affect the inherent powers of the High Court for granting stay on the recovery of such amount.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Measures, weights and testing instruments.

84. Every person who manufactures or sells any liquor under a licence granted under this Regulation, shall be bound —

(a) to supply himself with such measures, weights and instruments as the Excise Commissioner may specify in this behalf, and to keep the same in good condition; and

(b) on the requisition of any Excise Officer, at any time to measure, weight or test any liquor in his possession in such manner as the said Excise Officer may require.

Power of Administrator to declare what shall be deemed to be liquor.

85. The Administrator may, by notification, declare as to what shall be deemed to be liquor for the purposes of this Regulation or the rules framed thereunder.

Power of the Administrator to regulate drinking and to enforce prohibition.

86. The Administrator may issue such order and take such measures as may be deemed appropriate to regulate drinking or to enforce prohibition in whole or any part of the Union territory.

Power of Administrator to regulate molasses, black jaggery, mahua flower, etc., to prevent misuse.

87. The Administrator may frame rules to regulate movement, possession and sale of molasses, black jaggery, mahua flower, etc., indicating terms and conditions as are necessary and expedient to prevent their misuse for illicit distillation.

Power to regulate advertisement.

88. No advertisement, direct or surrogate, shall be made for promoting consumption of liquor:

Provided that the Excise Commissioner may, at his discretion, allow such advertisement which is educative and promotes responsible drinking.

Power of Administrator to declare limit of sale by retail and by wholesale.

89. The Administrator may, by notification, declare in respect of the whole of the Union territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands or to any local area comprised therein as regards purchasers generally or any specified class of purchasers and generally or for any specified occasion, the maximum or minimum quantity or both of any liquor which for the purposes of this Regulation may be sold by retail and by wholesale.

90. No suits for damages shall lie in any civil court against the Administrator or any officer or person for any act done in good faith, or ordered to be done in pursuance of this Regulation or of any other law for the time being in force relating to excise revenue.

Bar of certain suits.

91. (1) The Administrator may by notification, make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, for carrying out purposes of this Regulation.

Power of Administrator to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the form in which an annual report shall be submitted by the Excise Commissioner under clause (i) of section 4;

(b) the grant of reward to the officers and employees, and informers for the work, and the terms and conditions thereof, under section 10;

(c) the number of members of the Board of Experts, their qualification and term under sub-section (1) of section 11;

(d) the manner of registration for the purpose of manufacture of alcohol exclusively for industrial use under sub-section (2) of section 12;

(e) the fees, the period for, the terms and conditions and the form, for grant of licence or permit under section 13;

(f) the conditions for security and counterpart agreement under section 15;

(g) the restrictions on power of the licensing authority to suspend or cancel licence and permit under section 18;

(h) the terms and conditions subject to which transfer of licence or permit may be made under section 21;

(i) the terms and conditions for granting of licence or lease under section 22;

(j) the bond to be executed for removal of liquor from manufactory, warehouse, etc., under section 23;

(k) manner of collection of duties of excise under sub-section (1), the terms and conditions for collection of fee for issue of licence or permit under sub-section (2) and the manner of assessment of import, export and transport duties under sub-section (3) of section 28;

(l) the returns, forms and the particulars and such other information to be submitted by the licensee under section 33;

(m) the quantity of the liquor to be sold, transported, possessed or bought by the manufacturer and the value thereof under clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 34;

(n) the period within which any major offence may be referred by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (2) of section 60;

(o) the manner of adjudication by an Adjudicating Officer under sub-section (2) of section 61;

(p) the guidelines for compounding under sub-section (3) and the manner in which the liquor, apparatus, vehicle or other material seized shall be disposed of under sub-section (4) of section 62;

(q) the manner in which any liquor, mahua flowers or molasses and any other confiscated property shall be disposed of under sub-section (7) of section 65;

(r) the manner and fees for disposal of confiscated property under sub-section (1) of section 67;

(s) the regulation of movement, possession and sale of molasses, black jaggery, mahua flower, etc., under section 87;

(t) any other matter which is to be, or may be prescribed under this Regulation.

Laying of rules.

92. Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

difficulties.

93. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Regulation, the Administrator may, by order published in Official Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, as may appear to it to be necessary, for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no order shall be made under this section after the expiry of the period of two years from the date of commencement of this Regulation.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

Repeal.

94. Immediately with effect from the date of commencement of this Regulation, section 31 (a), (b) and section 31A and the Schedule of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Regulation, 1876 shall stand repealed.

Reg.
III of 1876.

Validation.

95. Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any court or other authority, anything or any action done or taken or purported to have been done or taken under the provisions under repeal referred to in section 94, and the rules made thereunder, before the date of promulgation of this Regulation shall be and shall be deemed always to have been, as valid and effective as if such thing or action had been done or taken under this Regulation, and accordingly—

(a) any duty or fee levied, assessed or collected or purporting to have been levied, assessed or collected under the provisions under repeal, and the rules made thereunder, before the date of commencement of this Regulation shall be deemed to have been validly levied, assessed or collected in accordance with law;

(b) no suit or other proceeding shall be maintained or continued in any court or before any authority for the refund, and no enforcement shall be made by any court or other authority of any decree or order directing the refund, of any such duty or fee which has been so collected:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to, or in relation to, any case in which, under the order of the High Court, refund had been made before the date of promulgation of this Regulation of any duty collected under the provisions under repeal and the rules made thereunder.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person before the date of promulgation of this Regulation shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable if this Regulation had not been promulgated.

Transitory provisions for excise laws for Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

96. Notwithstanding the repeal of section 31(a), (b) and section 31A of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Regulation, 1876, all rules, notifications and orders made or issued thereunder shall continue to be in force and operate till new rules, orders and notifications are made or issued under this Regulation:

Reg.
III of 1876.

Provided that anything done or any action taken under the provisions under repeal shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Regulation and shall continue in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or by any action taken under this Regulation.
